Commonwealth, COFINA, HTA, and ERS the “Debtors,” and each individually a “Debtor”), as Title III debtors, by and through the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (the “Oversight Board”), as the Debtors’ representative pursuant to section 315(b) of the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (“PROMESA”),² respectfully submit this motion (the “Motion”), pursuant to section 365(d)(4) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), made applicable to these cases by PROMESA section 301(a), for entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Proposed Order”), granting an eighth extension of the deadline for the Debtors to assume or reject any of the leases, subleases or other agreements, under which a Debtor is a lessee and the Puerto Rico Public Buildings Authority (“PBA”) is the lessor, that may be considered an unexpired lease of nonresidential real property (collectively, the “PBA Leases”),³ through and including July 29, 2020 (the “Extended 365 Deadline”), without prejudice to (x) the Debtors’ right to seek further extensions as contemplated by Bankruptcy Code section 365(d)(4)(B)(ii), (y) the right of any party in interest to object to such requested extensions, or (z) the Debtors’ right to object or respond to such objections on the basis that such party lacks standing to object to such requested extensions (collectively, the “Reserved Rights”). In support of this Motion, the Debtors respectfully represent as follows:

Jurisdiction and Venue

1. The United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (the “Court”) has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to PROMESA section 306(a).
2. Venue is proper pursuant to PROMESA section 307(a).

² PROMESA has been codified in 48 U.S.C. §§ 2101–2241.

3. The statutory predicate for the relief sought herein is Bankruptcy Code section 365(d)(4), made applicable to these cases by PROMESA section 301(a).

Background

4. On May 3, 2017, the Oversight Board issued a restructuring certification pursuant to PROMESA sections 104(j) and 206 and filed a voluntary petition for relief for the Commonwealth pursuant to section 304(a) of PROMESA, commencing a case under title III thereof (the “Commonwealth’s Title III Case”).

5. On May 5, 2017, the Oversight Board issued a restructuring certification pursuant to PROMESA sections 104(j) and 206 and filed a voluntary petition for relief for COFINA pursuant to PROMESA section 304(a), commencing a case under title III thereof (“COFINA’s Title III Case”).

6. On May 21, 2017, the Oversight Board issued restructuring certifications pursuant to PROMESA sections 104(j) and 206 and filed a voluntary petition for relief for each of ERS and HTA pursuant to PROMESA section 304(a), commencing cases under title III thereof (the “Additional Title III Cases”).

7. On June 1, 2017, the Court entered an order granting the joint administration of the Commonwealth’s Title III Case and COFINA’s Title III Case, for procedural purposes only [ECF No. 242].

8. On June 29, 2017, the Oversight Board issued a restructuring certification for PREPA pursuant to PROMESA sections 104(j) and 206 and, on July 2, 2017, filed a voluntary petition for relief for PREPA pursuant to PROMESA section 304(a), commencing a case under title III thereof (“PREPA’s Title III Case” and collectively with the Commonwealth’s Title III Case, COFINA’s Title III Case, the Additional Title III Cases, and any subsequent case under Title III of PROMESA commenced by a covered territorial instrumentality under PROMESA, the “Title III Cases”).

9. On June 29, 2017, the Court entered an order granting the joint administration of the Additional Title III Cases with the Commonwealth’s Title III Case, for procedural purposes only [ECF No. 537].

10. On July 21, 2017, the Debtors filed a motion (the “365(d)(4) Motion”) seeking to extend the time to assume or reject unexpired leases of nonresidential real property pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 365(d)(4), made applicable to these cases by PROMESA section 301(a), through and including (a) November 29, 2017 for the Commonwealth, (b) December 1, 2017 for COFINA, and (c) December 18, 2017 for ERS and HTA [ECF No. 705].

11. On August 8, 2017, the Court entered an order (the “365(d)(4) Order”) granting the relief requested in the 365(d)(4) Motion [ECF No. 994].

12. On October 6, 2017, the Court entered an order (“PREPA’s Joint Administration Order”) granting the joint administration of PREPA’s Title III Case with the Commonwealth’s Title III Case, for procedural purposes only [ECF No. 1417]. Furthermore, in PREPA’s Joint Administration Order, the Court made clear the 365(d)(4) Order applied to PREPA, and that for PREPA, the deadline to assume or reject any nonresidential real property lease was extended to January 28, 2018 [ECF No. 1417 ¶ 8].

13. On October 24, 2017, the Debtors filed a motion (the “Second 365(d)(4) Motion”) seeking to consensually extend the time to assume or reject unexpired leases of nonresidential real property pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 365(d)(4)(B)(ii), made applicable to these cases by PROMESA section 301(a).

14. On November 15, 2017, the Court entered an order (the “Second 365(d)(4) Order”) extending the deadline for the Debtors to assume or reject any of the PBA Leases for 120 days, through and including (a) March 29, 2018 for the Commonwealth, (b) March 31, 2018 for COFINA, (c) April 17, 2018 for ERS and HTA, and (d) May 28, 2018 for PREPA, without prejudice to the Reserved Rights.

15. On February 13, 2018, the Debtors filed a motion (the “Third 365(d)(4) Motion”) seeking to consensually extend the time to assume or reject unexpired leases of nonresidential real property pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 365(d)(4)(B)(ii), made applicable to these cases by PROMESA section 301(a).

16. On March 7, 2018, the Court entered an order (the “Third 365(d)(4) Order”) extending the deadline for the Debtors to assume or reject any of the PBA Leases, through and including July 27, 2018, without prejudice to the Reserved Rights.

17. On July 3, 2018, the Debtors filed a motion (the “Fourth 365(d)(4) Motion”) seeking to consensually extend the time to assume or reject unexpired leases of nonresidential real property pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 365(d)(4)(B)(ii), made applicable to these cases by PROMESA section 301(a).

18. On July 19, 2018, the Court entered an order (the “Fourth 365(d)(4) Order”) extending the deadline for the Debtors to assume or reject any of the PBA Leases, through and including November 23, 2018, without prejudice to the Reserved Rights.

19. On October 9, 2018, the Debtors filed a motion (the “Fifth 365(d)(4) Motion”) seeking to consensually extend the time to assume or reject unexpired leases of nonresidential real property pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 365(d)(4)(B)(ii), made applicable to these cases by PROMESA section 301(a).

20. On October 30, 2018, the Court entered an order (the “Fifth 365(d)(4) Order”) extending the deadline for the Debtors to assume or reject any of the PBA Leases, through and including March 23, 2019, without prejudice to the Reserved Rights.

21. On February 19, 2019, the Debtors filed a motion (the “Sixth 365(d)(4) Motion”) seeking to consensually extend the time to assume or reject unexpired leases of nonresidential real property pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 365(d)(4)(B)(ii), made applicable to these cases by PROMESA section 301(a).

22. On March 3, 2019, the Court entered an order (the “Sixth 365(d)(4) Order”) extending the deadline for the Debtors to assume or reject any of the PBA Leases, through and including July 24, 2019, without prejudice to the Reserved Rights.

23. On July 2, 2019, Debtors filed a motion (the “Seventh 365(d)(4) Motion”) seeking to consensually extend the time to assume or reject unexpired leases of nonresidential real property pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 365(d)(4)(B)(ii), made applicable to these cases by PROMESA section 301(a).

24. On July 19, 2019, the Court entered an order (the “Seventh 365(d)(4) Order”) extending the deadline for the Debtors to assume or reject any of the PBA Leases, through and including January 29, 2020, without prejudice to the Reserved Rights.

25. On December 21, 2018, the Oversight Board and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of all Debtors other than COFINA (the “Committee”) filed an adversary complaint in the Adversary Proceeding [ECF No. 1, Adv. Proc. No. 18-00149].

26. On May 31, 2019, the Oversight Board reached an agreement with certain holders of general obligation bonds issued by the Commonwealth (“GO Bonds”) and bonds issued by PBA (the “PBA Bonds”) on a framework for a plan of adjustment to resolve approximately $35 billion of debt and non-debt claims against the Commonwealth. That agreement is embodied in a Plan Support Agreement (the “PSA”), a component of which is the compromise and settlement of the disputes in the Adversary Proceeding (the “PBA Global Settlement”). In light of, and as required by, the PBA Global Settlement, on June 27, 2019 [ECF No. 99, Adv. Proc. No. 18-00149], the Oversight Board moved to stay the Adversary Proceeding pending confirmation of a joint plan of adjustment for the Commonwealth and PBA that incorporates the restructuring framework contained in the PBA Global Settlement. On July 24, 2019, the motion was granted and the Adversary Proceeding was stayed.

27. While the Oversight Board does not concede that the PBA Leases at issue in the Adversary Complaint are true leases for purposes of Bankruptcy Code section 365(d)(4), the Oversight Board nevertheless seeks another extension of the deadline for assuming or rejecting leases. The Motion is not intended to have any effect on the Adversary Complaint, and shall not be deemed an admission or waiver of the Oversight Board with respect to the Adversary Complaint.

Relief Requested

28. By this Motion, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 365(d)(4)(B)(ii), made applicable to these cases by PROMESA section 301(a), the Debtors seek entry of an eighth order extending the time within which the Debtors must assume or reject the PBA Leases to a uniform deadline for all Debtors of July 29, 2020, without prejudice to the (i) Reserved Rights, and (ii) the Court’s determination of the Adversary Complaint, and any party’s rights with respect to the Adversary Complaint.

The PBA Leases

29. As set forth in the Second 365(d)(4) Motion, the Debtors are parties to numerous unexpired leases of nonresidential real property, including the PBA Leases, that support their many operations. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 365(d)(4), made applicable to these cases by PROMESA section 301(a), and the Seventh 365(d)(4) Order, the time within which the Debtors must assume or reject the PBA Leases is currently set to expire on January 29, 2020 for each of the Debtors.

30. To the extent the PBA Leases are determined to be true leases, as explained in prior motions requesting extensions, the Oversight Board and the Debtors require additional time to complete their analysis and determine which should be assumed, and which should be rejected.

31. PBA has consented to the requested relief.

Basis for Relief

32. Section 365(d)(4)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that an unexpired lease of nonresidential real property under which a debtor is the lessee will be considered rejected if the debtor does not assume or reject the unexpired lease within 120 days after filing or before plan confirmation, whichever is earlier. A court may extend the period for 90 days on the motion of the debtor or lessor for cause—as this Court already has. 11 U.S.C. § 365(d)(4)(B)(i). A court may also grant a subsequent extension, as the Court did by entering the Second 365(d)(4) Order, Third 365(d)(4) Order, Fourth 365(d)(4) Order, Fifth 365(d)(4) Order, Sixth 365(d)(4) Order, and Seventh 365(d)(4) Order but only upon written consent of the lessor in each instance. Id. § 365(d)(4)(B)(ii). Here, PBA has consented to an additional extension of the Debtors' deadline to assume or reject the PBA Leases through the Extended 365 Deadline.

33. This relief has been granted by this Court previously and is frequently granted by bankruptcy courts in multiple circuits. See, e.g., In re Mesa Air Group, Inc., et al., Case No. 10-10018 (MG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. filed Aug. 3, 2010) [ECF No. 956] (order granting extension to assume or reject leases through effective date of Debtors' plan of reorganization); In re Bulk Petroleum Corp., Case No. 09-21782, 2011 WL 6779467 (Bankr. E.D. Wis. filed Dec. 16, 2011)

(same); In re Walker Land & Cattle, LLC, Case No. 13-41437, 2014 WL 2443943 (Bankr. D. Idaho filed Apr. 29, 2014) (extending deadline to assume or reject lease to date of confirmation of chapter 11 plan); In re Buckingham Oil Interests, Inc., Case No. 15-13441 (JNF) (Bankr. D. Mass. filed Nov. 30, 2015) [ECF No. 402] (extending deadline to date past the effective date of debtor's plan of reorganization to assume or reject leases).

34. The Debtors' restructuring efforts would be jeopardized without the relief requested in this Motion. If the PBA Leases are determined to be true leases subject to section 365, and the Debtors are required to decide prematurely whether to assume the PBA Leases, only to find out that such leases are not necessary for their restructuring under PROMESA, the Debtors would be saddled with an administrative expense claim for all amounts due under the leases, including cure amounts for prepetition amounts that would otherwise be general unsecured rejection damage claims. See In re Klein Sleep Prods., Inc., 78 F.3d 18 (2d Cir. 1996). However, if the Debtors are required to vacate buildings and offices to avoid the financial risk of prematurely assuming burdensome leases, only to find that such space is necessary for the Debtors' operations, vital services that the Debtors provide the 3.5 million residents of Puerto Rico would be further eroded. See PROMESA § 405(m) (Congress's findings regarding the conditions in Puerto Rico).

35. These Title III Cases are of an unprecedented size and scope, with the Commonwealth and its numerous instrumentalities owing approximately $74 billion in the aggregate. The complexities and challenges of these Title III Cases have been further exacerbated by Hurricanes Maria and Irma, the pressing liquidity issues certain of the Debtors are facing, and the need to create and certify new fiscal plans for the Debtors and certain other non-debtor instrumentalities covered by PROMESA. Given these necessary tasks and challenges, the Debtors have not had sufficient time to perform the necessary economic analysis of each of the PBA Leases to determine which should be assumed and which should be rejected. Furthermore, PBA would be disadvantaged if the Debtors are compelled to reject prematurely leases that would otherwise be assumed to PBA's benefit after due analysis. Thus, the Court should grant the consensual extension with respect to the PBA Leases, through and including the Extended 365 Deadline, without prejudice to the Reserved Rights.

Notice

36. The Debtors have provided notice of this Motion to (collectively, the "Notice Parties"): (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Puerto Rico; (b) the indenture trustees and/or agents, as applicable, for the Debtors' bonds; (c) the entities on the list of creditors holding the 20 largest unsecured claims against COFINA; (d) the statutory committees appointed in these Title III Cases; (e) the Office of the United States Attorney for the District of Puerto Rico; (f) counsel to the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority; (g) the Puerto Rico Department of Justice; (h) all parties filing a notice of appearance in these Title III Cases; and (i) PBA. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

37. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request the Court to enter an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, (a) granting this Motion, (b) granting the extension of the time for the Debtors to assume or reject any of the PBA Leases, through and including the Extended 365 Deadline, without prejudice to the Reserved Rights, and (c) granting the Debtors such other relief as is just and proper.

The relief granted by this Order shall not affect the Debtors' rights to assume, assume and assign, or reject any PBA Leases.
